

Electromagnetic Spectrum Project
Student Marking Rubric!

Name of student:

Date:

Instructions: You are to self assess your completed and submitted project. Carefully fill out the table below resulting with your total. Your teacher will also assess and compare his score with yours.

The notes section of Part 1 is worth 20 marks, while Part 2 is worth 40 marks.

Criteria	2	4	6	8	Subtotal of each line
Spelling &amp; Grammar	4 or more errors	3 errors	2 errors	No errors in spelling or grammar.
Completion	No thought was placed in overall completion of this project.	Very little effort was placed in the proper completion of this project.	Overall, the project was somewhat complete, but still was missing in several areas.	Great care was placed in the quality and look of this project. It was fully complete.
Project Design	Project shows little evidence of key ideas	Project shows some evidence of key ideas.	Project adequately shows evidence of key ideas.	Project shows key ideas throughout. Information was clear & very informative.
Resources used from the web. (Internet &amp; Youtube sites)	It's apparent that only one website was cited and listed in the bibliography.	(not a choice)	At least 2 sites were properly used and cited in the bibliography.	3 or more sites were properly cited in the bibliography and used for this project.
Science Content &amp; Learning	Project shows little evidence of learning and understanding. Work appears directly copied.	Project shows some evidence of key ideas and work appears to be reworded by the student.	Project shows evidence of understanding and reflection of key ideas in the student's own words.	Project shows clearly demonstrates that the student has learned about the topic. Everything included looks organized and placed in the student's own words.
				Total out of 40 marks	/ 40